

ANDREAS KOURTIS

He first started working in the field of lighting design in 2004, initially as an assistant alongside George Tellos. Having a 12-year-experience working on concerts, theatrical performances, events and the TV, he has successfully undertaken medium- and large-scale projects worldwide, either as a lighting designer or as a lighting programmer and operator.